"NOMINATING CHURCH OFFICERS"

Each year a representative committee is called by the congregation to make nominations for the offices of Elder. Simply electing a committee will not ensure a church of capable leaders. How a nominating committee is constituted, how it conceives its task, how it goes about its work – all have considerable influence on the quality of leadership that governs the congregation.

Why a nominating committee?
A basic principle of Presbyterian polity provides church members with the right to choose who is to rule over them (G-6.0107).

A representative nominating committee can:
* Study the congregation's leadership needs and bring a unified approach to the search for Elders.

- * Widen the possibility of finding new candidates for leadership.
- * Take the time necessary to discern the nature of each office and a candidate's qualifications to fill it.
- * Provide a necessary forum for thorough, open, and confidential discussion of these matters.

The Committee's effectiveness depends on:

- * Understanding the nature of ministry, and the mission of the church.
- * Awareness of the spiritual nature of the office of Elder.
- * Sensitivity to personal issues within the congregation.
- * Knowledge of the problems and possibilities within their own congregation.

Each year, two members from the Session, and three members of First Presbyterian Church are called by the congregation to serve on the Church Officer Nominating Committee (CONC). These five people are charged to seek names to consider for nomination for service as Elders. The Pastor shall be a member of this committee, serving ex officio and without vote. Those who accept nominations should be available from March to August.

Elected by the Session to serve are Nelta Ray (Chair) and Ginia Northcutt. Church members will be asked to nominate three members to serve on the CONC at the Congregational Meeting on March 21, 2010 at 9:45 a.m.

MEN'S MINISTRY

2nd Annual Men's Retreat at Camp Fern

April 23-24

Camp background: Located outside Marshall, Texas, Camp Fern is primarily a summer camp but is open for off-season groups. Our group will have exclusive use of the dining hall, recreation hall complete with ping pong tables, piano, TV/DVD, large fireplace and rockers on porch, waterfront, covered arena, volleyball court, tennis courts, soccer fields, a horseshoe pit and many nature trails. Cabins are not air conditioned.

Speaker for the retreat will be Neal Jeffrey. A former All-American quarterback at Baylor University and NFL quarterback for the San Diego Chargers, Neal is a popular corporate speaker and much-loved minister at one of America's largest churches.

A stutterer since childhood, Neal learned early-on the meaning of "overcoming" and that somehow he had to find a way to "get through what he couldn't get over." Today, he inspires audiences nationwide to throw out the "I can't", "I'll never make it" and "I'm not good enough" to "dream big, believe with your heart, show up and make a play!"

Neal holds a bachelor's degree from Baylor University, a master of divinity degree from Southwestern Seminary, and has just celebrated his 25th anniversary as associate pastor of the 28,000-member Prestonwood Church of Dallas. He and his wife, Sheila, have three grown children and two grandchildren.

Cost for the retreat is only $50 and scholarships are available. To make reservations, please contact the church office at 903-757-2525 or email to kimstanley@fpclongview.org

Thank you for allowing us to be an extension of the church and of God to the world. We look forward to returning home with wonderful experiences from both Brazosport and Peru. God bless!

WHAT CHILDREN LEARN ABOUT GOD.

What are our children learning about God in church school? In many ways it seems like fun and games yet the students are also hearing about God and His son, Jesus Christ.

Let's go through a Sunday morning. Children attending worship see the body of Christ meeting and praising God together. The developing mind begins to comprehend that this worship time in the big church is important. The children may see other children and students read scripture, sing or light the candles. The big room with the colored windows is a place for them.

The children head off to church school. The first - fourth graders meet in the chapel to prepare for the Workshop Rotation. It is loud and orderly if those two thoughts go together. A song is sung, a prayer said and then a time to discuss the lesson for the month, the Bible verse, special offering or books of the Bible.

With Shepherds at the lead, the children go to different classes to learn about the Bible lesson via art, science, drama, computers, games and cooking. Each area focuses on the same lesson but through a different activity over four weeks. Each area reads the scripture, prays and has fun in God's house.

First Presbyterian is a place for children to know that God's house is open to them and here we all learn to worship God together—children, youth and adults. God's house is a safe place and they are welcome here.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND PRAYER CONCERNS

THANK YOU'S

From Jill Littlejohn:

A heartfelt thank you to all of you who baked, donated money towards food, and helped in the kitchen for the Hearts for Mission Style Show! It was a big success for the youth mission trip fund due largely to YOU. Your willingness to give so freely of your time, baking talents, and funds will allow our youth to reach out to the Peruvian people in an act of Christ's love. Bless you all!

From Muriel Turner:

Thanks to my church family for being so caring and thoughtful. The flowers were so beautiful and lasted for days, which I enjoyed and made each day easier to be house bound. I want to thank Felicia Moore for giving her time to deliver them to me. I enjoyed her visit. Thanks again and God bless each and all.

From Sally Rathbun:

Thank you so much for making our LIHN guests feel at home! Besides the 40+ individual volunteers, we had several Sunday school classes, the church staff, and three Circles providing meals for our two families. Please mark your calendars now for the annual "Fun-raiser" to be held at First United Methodist on March 25. More information will follow. We plan to have another volunteer training before our next weekend to host (April 25-May 2).

From Gaynelle Brashear:

Belated thanks to the carolers that came out to my home before Christmas. I really enjoyed hearing their beautiful voices. My family and I loved the poinsettia. It really gave my home a beautiful Christmas glow. I appreciate all of you for thinking of me and my family.

THANK YOU FROM HAITI EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Thank you for your support of the Haiti Education Foundation. We know the importance of education in the lives of the children of Haiti, as well as their families. Education brings HOPE! Although we have received word of destruction and damage to a number of our schools in the mountains following the earthquake, we will continue to support our teachers and get our children back in the classroom as quickly as possible. Being able to attend school will bring some sense of normalcy to the children's day despite the hardships surrounding them. Some of our schools are back in operation, but not all. Through our Disaster Fund, we have been able to help with immediate needs in our school villages. Please know that your gift blesses the lives of children in Haiti...together we are making a difference.

WHAT IS LENT?

Dating back to the Fourth Century A.D., Lent is a period of reflection, abstinence and self denial, following the example of Jesus Christ. This season is one of self-examination and discipline. During this time of cleansing, we prepare our hearts for the resurrection of Jesus Christ!

For the first two centuries, this period of preparation for Easter amounted to forty hours in commemoration of the time Jesus spent in the tomb. By the early Third Century, this observance had extended to six days and in 325 A. D. the earliest reference to a forty-day period is found. By the Eighth Century, Ash Wednesday was recognized as the beginning of Lent. Ash Wednesday derives its name from Old Testament times when sackcloth and ashes were used as symbols of repentance. Shrove Tuesday precedes Ash Wednesday which gives people an opportunity to feast prior to the fasting and sacrifice of Lent.

Today Lent begins on Ash Wednesday which is forty days before Easter, excluding Sundays. Although most Christians do not observe the Lenten season with the strictness of earlier times, we still recognize Lent as a period of spiritual discipline in which we deepen our union with Jesus Christ.

Lent concludes with Holy Week when we remember Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem, the Last Supper, the crucifixion, the burial and the joy of resurrection.
